GUIDELINES FOR UTILIZING COMPUTER-ASSISTED NOTETAKERS

What is computer-assisted notetaking (CAN)?

Computer-assisted notetakers provide an important service for those people who are deaf, hard of hearing or deaf-blind who do not use sign language, making it easier for their participation at meetings or in classrooms. Computer-assisted notetaking (CAN) services mean professional services performed by a typist using a laptop computer. The CAN typist provides a summary of a speaker's words or notes typed into a laptop computer and displayed onto its screen. services are distinguished from real-time captioning services in that what is typed may be simultaneous, not necessarily word-for-word, and stenographic equipment and skills are not involved.

Are computer-assisted notetakers credentialed?

There currently are no known national or local agencies that award credentials for computer-assisted notetakers. It is advisable that a state agency utilize a person who meets all or a majority of the following characteristics in order to provide computer-assisted notetaking services:

- ability to organize and summarize information;
- ability to type at least 60 words per minute;
- familiarity with the subject being discussed;
- experience working with consumers who are deaf, hard of hearing, or deafblind;
- working knowledge of laptop computers and word-processing software;
- good auditory, verbal, and spelling skills.

Who develops rules for Hawaii state government agencies regarding computer assisted notetakers?

These guidelines are derived from Hawaii Administrative Rules, Chapter 11-218, adopted April 7, 1997 and amended on July 19, 2001. The Disability and Communication Access Board (DCAB) develops administrative rules for providers of communication access services, such as computer-assisted notetakers. The rules establish guidelines for state executive branch agencies hiring providers, including recommended fees. Guidelines for computer-assisted notetakers are similar to those for interpreters (see Attachment M). Contact DCAB at the phone numbers below for more information or for a copy of the rules. The DCAB can also provide a list of resources that includes computer-assisted notetaking services and information.

If you need to hire a computer-assisted notetaker on a fee-for-service basis, the next two pages, ATTACHMENT O-1, provide a sample purchase order for computer-assisted notetaker services, as well as a sample invoice from a free-lance computer-assisted notetaker billing for services. (Please note that the hourly rate indicated on the invoice is for illustrative purposes only and not intended to reflect a recommended billing rate.)
